

We are the people—with the Largest Circulation of any paper in Kansas.

The Wichita Daily Eagle

VOL. XVIII, NO. 146.

WICHITA, KANSAS, FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 5, 1893.

WHOLE NO. 2365.

Medical and Surgical Institute

DR. B. Y. BOYD.

Dr. J. J. Littlefield,

Guarantees to Cure the Following Diseases:

Cataract, Chest, and Throat and Lung Diseases successfully treated. Correspondence solicited and confidential.

Drs. Boyd and Littlefield's MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE.
155 North Main street, Wichita, Kansas.

THE WICHITA MEDICAL AND SUR-GICAL INSTITUTE AND SANITARIUM.

Incorporated and Chartered under and by virtue of the Laws of State of Kansas.

Permanently established at Wichita for the treatment of all Chronic, Nervous, Blood, Skin and Private Diseases, and performing all Surgical Operations.

DR. J. H. TERRILL,
President of the Kansas State Medical and Surgical Institute and Sanitarium, is the most widely and favorably known specialist in the Southwest. His long experience in the treatment of all Chronic, Nervous, Blood, Skin and Private Diseases, and performing all Surgical Operations, has secured for him the highest reputation in the profession.

TO YOUNG AND MIDDLE AGED MEN.
The awful effects of early vice which brings organic weakness, destroying both mind and body permanently cured.
We guarantee to cure you or no pay.

We give a Written Guarantee to Cure the Following Diseases: Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs.

A SURE CURE for the following diseases: Catarrh, Piles, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Rheumatism, etc.

PIANOS
Steinway, Peck, Mason & Hamlin, Bradbury and Heming.

ORGANS
Lakeside, Nason & Hamlin Newman Bros.

Standard Botany Shuttle and New Home Sewing Machines.

Washburn Guitars and Mandolins. Musical Merchandise. Sheet Music.

Imperial, Telegram and Central Bicycles.

Barnes & Newcomb
407 E. DOUGLAS.

SOMETHING NEW
We would be pleased to show lovers of novelties our Columbian Trousers, and at the same time our other styles.

SWAB
TALOR

SEXUAL WEAKNESS

RENTS COLLECTED,
Property Cared For Farms and city property for sale. Now is the time to buy real estate. See WRIGHT & MILLER,
133 N. Market St.

INSURE WITH KNIGHT BROS.
200 NORTH MAIN.

Large Agency. All American and English Companies. Telephone 64.

Boston Store SACRIFICE SALE

In Clothing Department, for the next 30 days.
A Sale worthy of your attention.

$6.95 75 men's blue flannel Suits, worth $10.
Sale price $6.95.

$7.95 50 men's fine worsted Suits, worth $12.
Sale price $7.95.

$8.00 50 men's fine scotch Cheviot suits, worth $12.50. Sale price
$8.00.

At $8.45
Choice of 150 Men's Cassimere Suits, comprising all leading styles, ranging in value from $12.00 to 15.00.
Choice of lot 8.45.

Boys' Clothing.
Ages 14 to 18.

$2.49 Boys' every day Suits, worth 4.00, at 2.49.

$3.45 Boys' Cassimere Suits, worth 5.00, at 3.45.

$4.45 Boys' Cassimere Suits, worth 6.00, at 4.45.

$5.45 Boys' Cassimere
Suits, worth 7.50, at 5.45.

25 cents. 100 Men's fine Balbriggan Undershirts and Drawers, at 25 cents.

FREE FOR THE BOYS.
With every purchase of boy's suits, amounting to $2 and over, we give free, an excellent pair of stilts.

BOSTON STORE.

KANSAS CONGREGATIONALISTS.
GREAT BEND, Kan., May 4.—On the second day of the twelfth annual meeting of the Kansas Home Missionary union of the Congregationalists encouraging reports were made. The treasurer reported that the total collections for the year were $1,467. The union decided to ask for $2,500 for next year.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.
CHICAGO, May 4.—Threatening skies kept the crowds from Jackson park yesterday. The paid admissions were only 10,000.

Thousands
Of dollars I spend trying to find a cure for Salt Rheum, which I had 13 years. Physicians said they never saw so severe a case. My legs, back and arms were covered by the humor. I began to take HOOB'S
SALT RHEUM CURE, and the flesh became sores healthy. The area soon healed, the scabs fell off, I was soon able to give up dances and am now a happy man. I was G. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford St., Providence, R. I.

HOOB'S PILLS cure liver bile, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, and sick headache. Try them.

DON'T MISS
THIS.

Remember our Baltimore Tailor-made men's and young men's Form Fitting Suits will be sold Saturday at $9.98.

Worth double the price.

GOLDEN EAGLE.

One Price Clothiers, Hatters, Furnishers, and Shoers.

225-228 E. Douglas

DIGHTON COTS.
DIGHTON, Kan., May 4.—[Special.]—Lane county has been blessed with some fine rains lately. They were of the size-sizzle soaker variety, and there will yet be lots of wheat, croakers and bears to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dr. D. L. Woods returned from a short business trip to Streator, Illinois, last Saturday.

Hon. C. E. Lobdell is in Topeka this week, attending the supreme court in the matter of the state against John O. Lloyd, recently sent up for seven years for attempted rape. The case is before the court on a bill of exceptions.

Rev. D. E. Votaw, lately postmaster at Oxford, Kan., and now pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Dighton, returned from a visit with his family, who are yet in Oxford. Rev. Mr. Votaw is pleased with his pastorate here, and the congregation and all others who have become acquainted are pleased with the pastor.

Rev. Hunter McDonald has been holding a series of meetings at the Christian church to large and appreciative audiences. Tuesday evening he delivered a lecture on the "Scientific Aspect of the Christ." Although a very hard rain storm prevailed that evening, a fairly large audience was present, who were well repaid, as the lecture was original, unique and finely presented.

H. E. Woolheater left for Colorado Springs on Wednesday evening, for a short visit with his brother Edward.

Our merchants all report very fair business, if wheat prospects are not very flattering. A curious fact, but a true one, is that those who are the least affected by dry weather or crop failures are the ones who do the most kicking and howling.

The genuine farmer who lives in the country and works on a farm is not saying much about going to the bowwows, but just keeps working away as hard as if he had millions in sight, with a faith of ultimate success that is sublime.

THE PEARY PARTY.
PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—At a meeting of the Geographical club yesterday the names of the members of Lieutenant Peary's party to go to Greenland were announced. They are Dr. F. A. Cook, Edwin A. Strup, Matthew Henson, Samuel Erickson, teacher in a manual training school at Aiken, S. C.; Mr. Davis-son, Lieutenant Peary's colored servant.
The three first named were members of the former expedition.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 4.—Captain Richard Pike, aged 50, one of the best known Arctic navigators in New Foundland, died today. He was master of the sailing steamer Kate which carried the Peary expedition to the north. He also commanded the schooner "Laud" which frankly by in 1881. It is believed that he never recovered from the exposure of the last trip.

MISSISSIPPI TROUBLES.
BROOK HAVEN, Miss., May 4.—Eighty armed men rode to the court house this morning while the court was in session and demanded the release of a Chinese man on bail ten men indicted for arson, murder and shooting with intent to murder, or that they would release the prisoners. The judge pleaded with the men while two guns were aimed at his breast.
In the mean time an alarm was given and soon about sixty men marched to the court house, armed with pistols and guns.
Heard or Judge Christian then drove off the mob without bloodshed. Later a military force was organized to keep the peace. Doubtless the grand jury will find indictments against the leaders.

SACRIFICE
MEN'S - NEGLIGEE - SHIRTS.
$1.00 Shirts for 60c.
1.75 " " 79c.
2.00 " " 1.25.
2.25 " " 1.50.
3.00 " " 1.60.

SPECIAL
Lots of Silk Teck Scarfs, all new desirable patterns, worth 40c, for 19c.

Two Days
More

Of the great sale of Imported Wash Goods at 19c per yard.

Men's Negligee
Shirts

Large lines of the very latest things for this season. See display in north window.

Boys Waists

Big values at 21c, 48c, 70c, 75c and 95c. Examine the qualities.

Mens
All
Linen
Four
Ply
Collars
10c each. 15c pair.

Latest shapes, all sizes.

Do you want Lace Curtains.

We can save you money and give you the latest.
All grades that are desirable from 95c a pair up.

Munson & Namara.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

SECRETARY GRESHAM DECLINES TO REPLY TO PENNOYER.

The Dispatch to the Pacific Coast State Governors Intended to Ally Apprehension.

The Cattle of the Lessees of the Lands of the Ponca Reservation Said to be Grazing on the Cherokee Strip.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections Not to Visit Kansas to Take Testimony in the Ady-Martin Contest—Charges of Offense Partisanship Being Filed Against Republican Officeholders by the Hungry.
Heda.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Secretary Gresham readiness today his statement of yesterday, that he had sent telegrams to the governors of certain western states, asking them to take precautions against violence to the Chinese when the extension act takes effect. The text of the dispatch over his signature given out for publication by Governor Penoyer of Oregon was correct.
The secretary declines to comment on the answer sent to him by Governor Penoyer.

"I sent a perfectly respectful message to Governor Penoyer. Representations had been made to the department that violence might be done to Chinese subjects when the law went into effect, and the dispatches were sent as a precautionary measure. I do not believe there are any prospects of trouble, but the dispatches were sent nevertheless to allay apprehension."

The proceedings to test the constitutionality of the Chinese exclusion act are being prosecuted by the Chinese Six Companies of San Francisco. The concurrent federal authorities by the Chinese Six Companies of San Francisco.
The Chinese Six Companies of San Francisco are being prosecuted by the Chinese Six Companies of San Francisco.

The Chinese Six Companies of the United States, to a very large extent, are subservient to the Six Companies, and follow the advice given by its officials in all matters. They advised the Chinese not to register as required by the act, so that even if the Chinese minister had authorized their position, which he did not, but, on the contrary, advised the subject of his government to respect the law, the probabilities are that his directions would not have been followed. Within the last few days there has been a breaking away from the Six Companies to some extent, and the applicants for registration at San Francisco are more numerous than can be accommodated by the present force.

The collector has asked the treasury department for additional help. As has been stated, there will be no arrests made for violation of the law until the supreme court has passed upon the measure.
Should the law be sustained, it is said there will be nothing like the general enforcement until congress makes an appropriation to meet the accompanying expense. The question of the constitution-ality of the Chinese exclusion law will come up for argument in the supreme court on the 10th inst. For the Six Companies, Mr. Choate of New York, and H. Hubley Ashton will appear, and for the government Solicitor General Ad-rich.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 4.—The collector of internal revenue estimates that there are 13,000 Chinese in this district, which comprises Oregon and Washington. Only 1,000 of this number have registered.
The collector has been instructed to principal cities by the Six Companies, forbidding Chinese to register with white officials, or to deal with them, until after the test case at New York has been decided. The collector says: "You will therefore not register, under heavy penalties if disobeyed."
Of the 600 Chinese who arrived from Hong Kong recently but four have been allowed to land, the certificates of the others having been found to be bogus or apparently so.

THE KANSAS STALWARTS.
WASHINGTON, May 4.—Mr. Richard B.
Crouch, who is one of the triumvirate charged by the worst Democrats of Kansas with the duty of placing as many thorns and rolling stones as possible in the path of Senator Martin, is alone in Washington, his two companions having gone home. He is, however, as aggressive and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the executive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned from Chicago he
would make several appointments which
would show the sympathy felt by the ex-
ecutive toward the unchanged Democracy
of Kansas, and that he was placing as
many thorns and rolling stones as possible
in the path of Senator Martin, as alone in Washington, his two companions having
gone home. He is, however, as aggressive
and active as ever. Mr. Crouch had received assurances that as soon as Mr.
Cleveland returned